

Dr. Jermone Glenn is a catalyst for culture shapers across the globe. As a progressive communicator, potential provoker, and people developer, he illuminates a path for others to walk in their purpose.

His identity is expressed through the five essential elements of his calling: creativity, character, commitment, compassion, and consistency, which he uses to empower a generation. Dr. Glenn is the Executive Pastor of New Life Covenant Southeast and the CEO of JG Innovations. He has a global impact: traveling the world teaching, preaching, and mentoring people through Leaderevolution®. As a thought architect and ministry leader for over 25 years, Dr. Glenn is the author of twelve books that shift mindsets and ensure the success of others. He breaks the stereotypes of religion, advancing the kingdom of God in every facet of life.

Jermone serves with the love of his life and partner in purpose, his wife Pastor Erica. In his downtime, you can find him quietly relaxing at home and functioning in the most important role of his life, a father to their three kids, Josiah, Mona'e, and Jonathan.
